- since we are not an established company but a group of individual professionals, currently not working as freelancers, we would like to know what is the correct field that must be filled in order to complete the A.1 Author Identification Form;
- we would also like to know if possessing a certified email account is mandatory for participation, and if so every member of the design team would require an individual email.

- In "Author" form choose "Other (please specify)"

- possessing a certified email account is not mandatory for participation.
